

If my cable/satellite service can carry The Weather Channel, a service that competes with local broadcast channel weather segments, then XM can carry XM Instant Traffic & Weather, and compete with local broadcast traffic and weather segments. There is no difference. Do not allow the NAB to dictate what XM Radio content I pay for each month.